

Media Release - Age Proves No Barrier to Surf Life Saving Success!

Shellharbour Surf Life Saving Club has returned from the NSW Country Surf Life Saving Titles at South West Rocks with a reputation as a club where age is no barrier to success. New recruits in their first year as patrolling lifesavers, at an age when many have retired, have bagged a swag of medals at their first Country titles.

Last year Daryl Glover and Dave Parton were best known for slogging up and down the black line at the Beverley Whitfield Pool as members of the Shellharbour Dolphins Swimmers. After a little encouragement from surf club regulars at the pool, the two completed their Surf Bronze Medallion and now patrol regularly at Shellharbour North Beach. Both in their 60's, they have proved that age is no barrier to taking on a new challenge.

At the NSW Country Titles over the 15th – 17th January 2010 Daryl secured Silver in the 60+ beach Sprint, Beach Flags and Surf Race and Board events, and Dave (“Dolly”) gained Bronze in the 60+ Beach Sprint and Beach Flags. Shellharbour also struck gold in the 60+ Tube Rescue event and medalled in the Board Rescue.

Shellharbour Veterans between 30 and 60 also impressed with a large number of medals in team events.
